Condolences:	Lindy, gave me my first job washing cars at Johnson's ESSO and later hired me to pump gas my junior and senior year in high school. Lindy taught me a lot about cars much about life and hard work. But most of all he told me that it is a good and honorable thing to serve in the military, I took that advice and signed up during the Vietnam war I know he was proud of me, we talked a lot about the military when I would come home on leave. I am so proud to have known and worked for Lindy RIP Dennis Dillon

Condolences:	Lindy was a good man and he did his best to take care of his family. And you will see him again when your time on this Earth is over. Then together you will go off in your new reality and have more great times and adventures together. After you have transcended that reality you all (Elma and Rosanne) will be together forever. In the meantime, Lindy is still with you in your hearts and minds and always will be. Grieve now, but remember the good times and the great man that you both loved.
