Condolences:	Dave - your sense of humor was second to none. The devotion to kids and music ... you began a Boys Chorus during my elementary school years and even gave me my first solo in 7th grade (and then my voice changes). All of the years of working with you as faculty, I never heard you either raise your voice or say even one negative word about anybody at anytime. You were and always be an inspiration to those who have yet to choose a direction in life. I will miss you my friend ! Mick

Condolences:	I will never forget Mr. Raybold. He was our music teacher at Moshannon Valley every single year, grades 1 through 12. I remember him standing in front of our 1st grade class in a blue blazer with an insignia on the pocket. He looked sharp yet friendly and kind. With his perfect posture, he marched the new students to the auditorium and so started our education in music. He eased this first grader's fears with song and humor and he managed to do that every year for the next 12 in a row. Mr. Raybold took us from "Insey Weensy Spider" to Handel's "Messiah". It amazed me how he could teach 1st graders as well as Sr. Chorus. I still laugh today at some of the funny things he would do to keep us engaged in the lessons. I always looked forward to music class with Mr. Raybold even as a sullen teen who on a lot of days, didn't look forward to much else. Teachers have the potential to truly make a positive difference in their student's lives. The good ones do. Mr. Raybold was one of those. I'll always be grateful to Mr. Raybold (I could never call him Dave, even today) for the positive effect he had on my musical education and life. He broadened my appreciation of music and sense of humor which serves me well to this very day. He was a wonderful teacher. May God's choir of celestial glory call him home and may his memory be eternal.

Condolences:	Mark, Butch and family, my sincerest condolences on the loss of your stepfather. I have very clear, fond memories of him teaching us music in elementary school in Madera. I must have been in like 2nd grade. We were all sitting in the auditorium. He had a tape player(This was the 60s!)to play some music. I was in the front row. He asked me if I wanted to hear what my voice sounded like. I said sure. So he taped me saying something and played it back. BUT, he played it back at FAST speed. So for a year, I thought I sounded like Donald Duck to everyone else!!!! He really was a great guy who enjoyed life and brought smiles and laughter to many people. He is in my prayers.
